1. Introduction and Background

- 1.1. Companies all over the world recognize that employees, from time to time, have concerns about what is happening at work, but are afraid to report those concerns. Reports are not limited to fraud, theft or corruption, but about possible misconduct, cover a much wider range of bad practices, including behaviour that is not in line with the Company's values. Such bad practice can be happening, likely to happen or even have happened. This policy and procedures are designed to encourage employees to voice concerns internally and promptly to prevent or remedy acts of misconduct.
- 1.2. It shall be the policy & procedure for expressing concerns about suspected serious misconduct at Worldlink. However, the procedures laid out in this document are not limited to complaints about accounting and auditing. It also extends to all the operational activities of the Company

2. Purpose

- 2.1. Worldlink is committed to the highest standards of corporate ethics and legal compliance. This Policy establishes a system to provide all Worldlink employees a means to report concerns about the Company's suspected violations of its policies and procedures, or national, province, or local laws and regulations. The intended objectives of this policy can be enlisted as:
 - a) To provide avenues for employees to raise concerns and define a way to handle these concerns.
 - b) To enable Management to be informed at an early stage about acts of misconduct.
 - c) To reassure employees that they will be protected from punishment or unfair treatment for disclosing concerns in good faith in accordance with this procedure.
 - d) To help develop a culture of openness, accountability and integrity.

3. Scope

- 3.1. This policy and procedures apply to all existing company employees, whether on the payroll of the Company or outsourced.
- 3.2. This policy and procedures apply to all divisions, subsidiaries and/or organizations of Worldlink.
- 3.3. This Policy DOES NOT apply to or change the Company's policies and procedures for individual employee grievances or complaints relating to job performance, terms and conditions of employment, which will continue to be administered and reviewed by Worldlink's Human Resources Department.

4. Definition

- 4.1. Whistleblower: A person or entity making a protected disclosure about improper or illegal activities is commonly referred to as a whistleblower. Whistleblowers may be Worldlink employees, applicants for employment, vendors, contractors, customers or general public.

The whistleblower's role is as a reporting party. They are not, investigators or finders of fact, nor do they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted.

4.2. Good Faith: Good faith is evident when the report is made without malice or consideration of personal benefit and the employee has a reasonable basis to believe that the report is true; provided, however, a report does not have to be proven to be true to be made in good faith. Good faith is lacking when the disclosure is known to be malicious or false.

4.3. Misconduct / Improper Activities: Examples of misconduct include, but not limited to, fraud, including financial fraud and accounting fraud, violation of laws and regulations, violation of Company policies, unethical behaviour or practices, endangerment to public health or safety and negligence of duty.

5. Policy

5.1. This Policy addresses the commitment of Worldlink to integrity and ethical behaviour by helping to foster and maintain an environment where employees can act appropriately, without fear of retaliation. To maintain these standards, Worldlink encourages its employees who have concerns about suspected serious misconduct or any breach or suspected breach of law or regulation that may adversely impact the Company, to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment.

5.2. Worldlink conducts business based on the principles of fairness, honesty, openness, decency, integrity and respect. It is Worldlink's policy to support and encourage its employees to report and disclose improper or illegal activities, and to fully investigate such reports and disclosures. It is also Worldlink's policy to address any complaints that allege acts or attempted acts of interference, reprisal, retaliation, threats, coercion or intimidation against employees who report, disclose or investigate improper or illegal activities (the "Whistleblowers") and to protect those who come forward to report such activities. Worldlink assures that all reports will be treated strictly confidentially and promptly investigated and that reports can be made anonymously, if desired.

5.3. Worldlink's internal control and operating procedures are intended to detect and to prevent or deter improper activities. However, even the best systems of controls cannot provide absolute safeguards against irregularities. Worldlink has the responsibility to investigate and report to appropriate parties, allegations of suspected improper activities and to take appropriate actions. Employees and others are encouraged to use guidance provided by this policy for reporting all allegations of suspected misconduct or improper activities.

6. Procedures

6.1. General Guidance: This policy presumes that employees will act in good faith and will not make false accusations when reporting of misconduct by the Company's employees. An employee who knowingly or recklessly makes statements or disclosures that are not in good faith may be subject to disciplinary procedures, which may include termination. Employees who report acts of misconduct pursuant to this policy can and will continue to be held to the Company's general job performance standards and adherence to the Company's policies and procedures.

6.2. Reporting Allegations of Misconduct or Improper Activities:

- 6.2.1. Any person may report allegations of suspected serious misconduct or any breach or suspected breach of law or regulation that may adversely impact the Company, the Company's customers, shareholders, employees, investors or the public at large.
- 6.2.2. Acts of misconduct may be disclosed in writing, telephonically or in person. However, all reports are encouraged to be made in writing, to assure a clear understanding of the issues raised. The format provided in Appendix 1 may be used for reporting purposes.
- 6.2.3. Individuals are recommended to self-identify, though it is not a requirement of the policy.
- 6.2.4. Reporting can be done by sending email directly to chairman.wlink@gmail.com
- 6.2.5. Reporting can also be done through Google form <https://goo.gl/forms/vFqTq5yOhN6RxR9f2>
- 6.2.6. In case of reports sent through e-mail, it is recommended to mark the subject as 'Worldlink Whistleblower' for ease of identification.
- 6.2.7. Although the whistleblower is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, he / she needs to demonstrate that there are sufficient grounds for concern.

6.3. Investigating Alleged Misconduct or Improper Activities

- 6.3.1. The acknowledgement of receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation within be sent to the whistleblower within three business days.
- 6.3.2. Investigation Committee (IC) will be formed comprising of independent internal and external investigators as required depending on the nature of the complaint.
- 6.3.3. The IC shall meet to discuss about the action / investigation on the reports received from whistleblowers.
- 6.3.4. The IC will ensure investigations are carried out using appropriate channels, resources and expertise.
- 6.3.5. Some concerns may be resolved by agreed action without the need for an investigation. Concerns about allegations which fall within the scope of specific procedures of Worldlink will be referred for consideration under those procedures.
- 6.3.6. The IC will report to the Committee Chairman on a periodic basis about the reports received and actions taken.
- 6.3.7. The Board of Directors (BOD) reserves the right to make any decision based on the findings by the IC.

7. Roles and Responsibilities

- 7.1. Whistleblowers: Whistleblowers should act in good faith and should not make false accusations when reporting of misconduct by the Company's employees.
- 7.2. Suspects: Suspects have a duty to cooperate with investigators. The identity of the suspect shall remain confidential.
- 7.3. Investigators: All investigators derive the authority to handle all matters seriously, confidentially and promptly. All investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and appearance.

7.4. Investigation Participants: Employees who are interviewed or asked to provide information have a duty to fully cooperate with the investigators. Participants should refrain from discussing or disclosing matters concerning the investigations.

8. WB Policy and Procedures Review

8.1. This policy and procedures will be reviewed and amended every two years to adapt to the organization's requirement.
